We sincerely request your kind support in sharing this opportunity. This initiative bridges Academia and Industry by empowering students with global skills, industrial confidence, and career-shaping exposure.

It serves as a professional industry induction platform, where students will experience how global companies function, understand real job responsibilities, and work like industry interns inside a professional corporate environment.

We kindly request your valuable support in circulating this opportunity among your students and encouraging deserving candidates to participate.

Through this internship, students will be onboarded into real international engineering and technology environments, working on Live Projects for companies in the Netherlands and Texas (USA). They will gain hands-on exposure to corporate workflows, problem-solving practices, team collaboration methods, and global project execution standards, helping them transition confidently from campus to corporate with true industry readiness.
